

If you could back up and re-take MATH 100 from the beginning, while the rest of the world stood still and waited, what would you do differently?

- Would you study differently? How so?
- Would you focus on different aspects of the course? If yes, which parts?
- Do you have any advice to the instructors about how to make the course more approachable for students in Fall 2022?